Forever Growing Therapy

Little Constellations

Created with connection at its heart.

This book was developed through collaboration between:

Anna Thompson
(Forever Growing Therapy)
Occupational Therapist, bringing professional insight into children's sensory experiences and emotional regulation.

Micklo Jarrett
Aboriginal Elder, contributing cultural knowledge and guidance to help ensure the story honours its cultural connections.

Elisha Nelson
An allied health assistant and developmental educator in training, passionate about creating inclusive, neuroaffirming resources for children.

Together, we created a resource that brings storytelling, regulation and culture together.

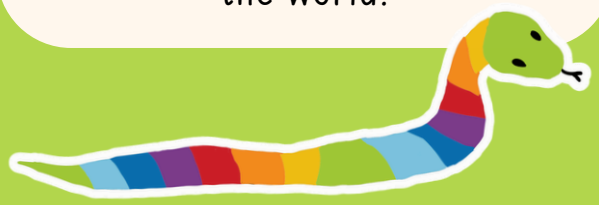

More than just a story.

Giiguy the Peaceful Rainbow Serpent is a children's picture book that introduces emotional regulation through storytelling, imagination and cultural connection.

Through the story of Giiguy and a very special koala, children are invited to explore how our bodies respond to the world around us, how we can support ourselves when emotions feel big, and how connection can help us feel safe.

With gentle, accessible language and engaging illustrations, the book provides opportunities for meaningful conversations about emotions, sensory experiences and regulation.

Created with neurodivergent children in mind, this story celebrates different ways of experiencing and interacting with the world.

Supporting little minds, one story at a time.

This book offers opportunities to:

- Introduce emotional regulation in an accessible, engaging way.
- Explore body awareness and emotional experiences.
